

The EPIPHANY STAR

a word to the wise • The Episcopal Church of the Epiphany, Atlanta Georgia

a bi-weekly newsletter | August 18, 2016

"Christian faith is a journey, not a destination."

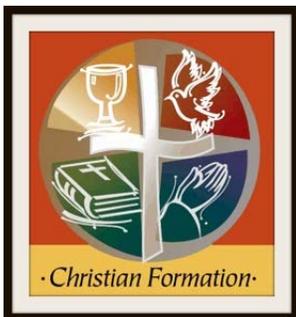

Sure, it's a hackneyed expression, but that doesn't make it any less true. For one thing, Jesus's entire ministry was quite literally a journey: he had no place to lay his head. And when he spoke about what his followers would do once he died, Jesus would say things like "take up your cross and follow me." After his resurrection, Jesus told his followers to keep going even to the ends of the earth. It's a neat trick, if you think about it. Since it's a big sphere, there aren't any ends at all, and Christians haven't been able to stop since.

For many reasons, the people following Jesus around must have looked pretty bizarre. Why were these diverse folk leaving their jobs and following around a homeless man, hanging on his every word? Jesus must have known that his followers were wondering the same thing themselves, because he gave them a title. He called them "disciples," which basically means "apprentices." Ultimately, they were learning something. But what, exactly, were they learning? Certainly nothing that could get you a diploma, or a credential, or a cushy job.

Eventually, the disciples started to understand: they were learning about God. The Greeks already had a word for this: "Theology," or the study (logy) of God (theos). But Jesus's disciples weren't just memorizing some cold, boring facts about God, or wasting hours on self-important babbling. No, they were learning about God by building relationships with Jesus and the other broken, vulnerable, in-process people who happened to huddle around to listen to Jesus' gospel message. And what they discovered together was not merely a true message, or a set of beliefs, or an ethical framework, though all of those are involved. Most importantly, they found a living presence that, somehow, they knew was God. Some of them even started to say that they knew God. Pretty soon, they were building communities that lived their lives in such radical ways that they upended the world-dominating Roman Empire within a couple of centuries.

How did Jesus do it? Throughout his ministry, Jesus modeled for his disciples several different things: messaging, community building, experiential encounter with the holy, and ethical engagement with the world. All of this is implied in Jesus's description of discipleship. And it's the exact same things we aspire to do in our own apprenticeship that we commit ourselves to when we show up to this church community.

In our common life at Epiphany, we set aside an hour a week for intentional community learning. It is our belief that we can encounter God in this time, we can be transformed, and we can be energized to enact the gospel in a world beset by fear and suffering. In order to feed all these aspects of our souls, the Christian Formation committee has devised a new model for adult education. We will have three groups meeting concurrently on Sunday mornings at 10:00, each designed to meet a different need. One group will focus on the serious study of sacred texts and traditions, straining to hear God's message more clearly and to know more about those sages who have preceded us in the faith. Another group will, mainly through small group conversation, consider various practical concerns of our daily lives and reflect about God's role in the world, the shape of our own faith, and the question of how to live righteously. And a third group will search for God's presence by reflecting on the Anglican practices of spiritual contemplation by slowly reading through the Book of Common Prayer. Feel free to try them out and jump between them to see where you fit best. You can find more details in this newsletter, and join us on Sunday, August 21, in Jones Hall at 10 a.m. to hear our facilitators describe the offerings for adult formation this year in detail.

For this first year, all three groups will consider the question: "Who is Christ?" During Lent, these groups will convene together in an all-parish discussion about Christ where we can bring all of our various interests, gifts, and learnings from the year. Our scholarly types, practical types, and spiritual types can share together. We will see if we can find a glimmer of a living presence among us. My deep hope is that it sparks a mutual passion to persevere in our journey of lifelong discipleship.

Adult Formation Offerings

Sunday Mornings: 10:00 a.m.

The Adult Formation Committee has been hard at work over the summer and we are delighted to announce these new offerings as well as familiar formats for your choosing! Please do not hesitate to contact Shirley Banks, Chair shirleymaybanks@gmail.com or The Rev. Dr. Sharon Hiers, staff liaison sharon@epiphany.org with your questions.

Anglican Prayer - Room 202 (upstairs)

There is a Latin phrase “lex orandi, lex credendi” that is loosely translated as praying shapes believing, or how we pray, is how we believe. In the Episcopal Church, you may hear that if you want to know what we believe, pray with us - in essence, worship with us.

This class will focus on praying and deliberately reading through the prayers, through the liturgies of our tradition. For the Fall and up to Advent, our focus will be the Eucharist. The format of the class will be for a facilitator to lead the group through small parts of the liturgy for discussion, and spend a portion of the class in contemplative prayer around a specific prayer or action or word. In Advent, we will shift to focus on the collects for the four Sundays as well as the Psalms. In the Spring Term, we will branch out to the many other liturgies found in the Book of Common Prayer.

Bible and Theology - Classroom C - Parish Hall

Formerly known as Adult Forum, Bible and Theology will be a similar format. The heart of this class is a didactic experience open to conversation among many. As described by Brennan Breed, this class will include the serious study of sacred texts and traditions, straining to hear God’s message more clearly and to know more about those sages who have preceded us in the faith. Each session will have at the heart a yearning to know “Who is Christ?” more deeply.

The Fall will focus on two major topics: Christ and Torah, and Matthew’s Christ. The first offering will be taught by our Theologian in Residence, Brennan Breed, who is an Assistant Professor of Old Testament at Columbia Theological Seminary. The second focus will build on the first, and Matthew’s Christ will be covered by our rector, Benno Pattison.

In the spring, and in keeping with our Anglican heritage and three-legged stool of scripture, tradition, and reason, we will move into the study of Christ in our tradition throughout the ages, and discussion around ethics and reason.

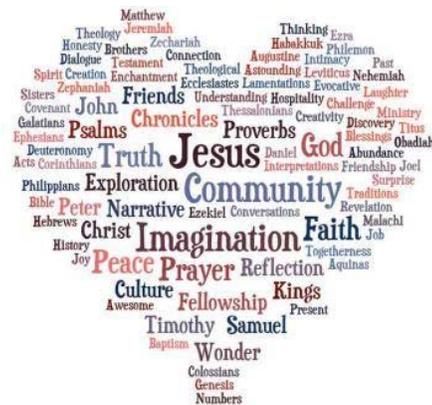

Practical Theology - Classrooms A&B - Parish Hall

Small group discussion loosely based on the Education for Ministry format of theological reflection will be the heart of this offering. A presenter will offer a 12-15 minute story or incident relating to a number of different topics, such as social media, grief, LGBTQ, global tragedies, and current events. The hope is to connect our everyday lives with our identity as Christians in this world we live in.

Then, in small groups gathered around tables, discussion will ensue based around the same set of questions each week:

- What personal experience did the speaker remind you of?
- In that personal experience: Did you see Jesus in someone? Who might have seen Jesus in you? How else was God present in your experience?
- What in our Christian tradition relates to your experience? (e.g. - a prayer, a Bible verse/passage, a favorite hymn, a story about a saint, etc)
- How might you think or act differently in a future situation like this?

We will begin each session with prayer, and conclude with offering prayers for the topics discussed and our hopes of following Jesus more closely in our lives.

Confirmation Classes begin September 25

Per the Catechism in the Prayer Book: What is Confirmation? Confirmation is the rite in which we express a mature commitment to Christ, and receive strength from the Holy Spirit through prayer and the laying on of hands by a bishop.

What is required of those to be confirmed? It is required of those to be confirmed that they have been baptized, are sufficiently instructed in the Christian Faith, are penitent for their sins, and are ready to affirm their confession of Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord.

Confirmation classes will be held on Sunday afternoons from 1 – 3 p.m. for four consecutive weeks beginning September 25 until October 16.

Confirmation is open to any adult or youth seeking to know more about the Christian faith as the Episcopal Church has received it. We will discuss prayer, scripture, church history, sin and redemption, ethics, the BCP, worship and liturgy, the three-legged stool (tradition, scripture and reason), and more!

We will discuss options for being confirmed near the end of our time together.

Please register for classes by emailing Sharon@epiphany.org

Education for Ministry

Education for Ministry is a group designed to help you discover your own ministry as a lay person. EFM groups consist of 6-12 lay people who commit to meet weekly between September and May. The heart of EFM is the weekly discussion in which participants wrestle with relating their faith to their daily lives. There is also some discussion of academic material.

EFM is a four-year program, but participants commit to only one year at a time. There are different academic materials for each year:

1. Year one students study the Old Testament, including the different source materials from which the Old Testament was derived, and the historical and cultural context of each book.
2. Year Two students get into the New Testament. Lessons cover historical and cultural background of the texts as well as the texts themselves.
3. Year Three students study Church History.
4. Year Four students explore theology in the modern world. There will be readings on ethics, on interacting with other religions, and on forming one's own theology.

Theological Reflection is a crucial part of EFM. Each week, we try to put our experience in conversation with the Christian tradition, to make sense of what our experience means in light of our faith, and to understand what unique calling there might be for each of us.

EFM is an extension course of the School of Theology of the University of the South. The cost is $350 per year, and CEU credits are available. If you are interested, please contact Esther Harbert at eharbert@gmail.com.

Forward Day by Day

Altar Arrangements & Sanctuary Light

Altar Flowers

Each Sunday, with the exception of Lent, flowers are placed on the high altar area. There are occasions when the church takes on a more festive look such as Christmas and Easter. Flowers are offered "for the Glory of God and in thanksgiving or in memory of a person or event." Parishioners offer altar flowers as a visible sign of acknowledgement of God's presence in their lives. The color and selection of flowers is based on the appropriateness of the liturgical season. More than one person or family may sign up for the altar flowers during the same week.

Sanctuary Light

The Sanctuary Light is a visible sign of the presence of the Blessed Sacrament held in reserve in the Tabernacle. It is the tradition of our faith that parishioners make an offering to acknowledge the memory of a loved one in his or her life—especially appropriate during the week or day of an anniversary date of someone's death.

Click the RSVP button on the homepage to find the sign-up link. Cost: $70/flowers, $6/light. Make check payable to Church of the Epiphany, noting "Flowers" or "Light" in the memo field, or pay by Paypal to treasurer@epiphany.org.

Weekday Worship & Bible Study

Tuesday Morning Eucharist is celebrated at 7 a.m. A group of men gather for breakfast and discussion afterwards and typically are on their way to work by 8 a.m.

A Noonday healing service is offered on Wednesdays followed by Eucharist. Bible Study will resume September 7.

Wednesday Evening Bible Study will resume September 7.

Thursday Shared Silence (7 a.m.) is a drop-in time for anyone who wants to sit with others in prayer, meditation, or self-reflection. The time is unprogrammed; come as you are and join a relaxed, open atmosphere.

Transitions

Please make the following changes and/or additions to your parish directory and welcome our new members. Directories are available from the office by request (parishadmin@epiphany.org) or you can download a pdf from the news page of our website.

If you would like to transfer your membership to Epiphany, you may pick up a Transfer Request form in the gallery or send your date of birth and any dates of baptism or confirmation, along with the name and address of your previous church home, to the parish office.
