Hope

“Dear Child of God, I write these words because we all experience sadness, we all come at times to despair, and we all lose hope that the suffering in our lives and in the world will ever end. I want to share with you my faith and my understanding that this suffering can be transformed and redeemed. There is no such thing as a totally hopeless case. Our God is an expert at dealing with chaos, with brokenness, with all the worst that we can imagine. God created order out of disorder, cosmos out of chaos, and God can do so always, can do so now--in our personal lives and in our lives as nations, globally. ... Indeed, God is transforming the world now--through us--because God loves us.”

— Desmond Tutu, God Has a Dream: A Vision of Hope for Our Time

This is not the Tutu quotation I was looking for, but isn't that often the way? And I don't mean it in the ways things seem to work out for me when I'm busy or distracted. I mean, if I had a dollar for the number of times I left one room to go get something in a different room, and by the time I made the journey I had either forgotten or seen a shiny distraction, I could retire the church debt single-handedly!

No, I had set out headlong to find another of the South African archbishop's famous lines. In fact, what I googled was “Desmond Tutu All Quotes” (and yes I realize that is not very specific) and what I saw first was the above paragraph. And it struck me to my core.

I'll admit I am a sucker for being called a Child of God. I identify closely with that imagery. And I'm also a sucker for something that touches the whole human condition - like calling out how we all experience sadness and despair, both in our lives and in our world. And third, I'm a sucker for hope in the midst of a seemingly hopeless world. At the end of the day, when I'm at the end of my rope, the knot that is tied and keeps me from slipping away is hope.

Hope in God. Hope in resurrection. Hope in community. Hope in the human family.

Which is why I was glad to find the original Tutu quotation I was looking for:

“We are made for goodness. We are made for love. We are made for friendliness. We are made for togetherness. We are made for all of the beautiful things that you and I know. We are made to tell the world that there are no outsiders. All are welcome: black, white, red, yellow, rich, poor, educated, not educated, male, female, gay, straight, all, all, all. We all belong to this family, this human family, God's family.” — Desmond Tutu

With hope in you,

The Rev. Dr. Sharon Hiers, Senior Associate Priest

Come to the music suite on Sunday mornings at 10:30 and learn the music for that Sunday's service. We will not process or vest and you may decide to sit in the congregation until the Peace, sing the anthem, and then return to your seat. All adults and high school youth are welcome. Summer Choir began June 5.

Final Affairs Fair Recruitment Call

On September 24, Epiphany will host her first Final Affairs Fair. This event invites members to make plans for our "later years" including planning for retirement, the importance of wills, legacy planning, and living arrangements. Your clergy and Julie will be on hand to discuss planning one's funeral, including selecting hymns and prayers. Do you have a particular passion or expertise in one of these fields, or something that may contribute to the discussion? Please contact Sharon@epiphany.org to be on a planning team for this event.

Dear Epiphany Family,

Although our hearts are broken, John, Elizabeth, Sarah, and I will always treasure the memories of that day when a host of the saints of God collaborated to celebrate the miracle of our beloved Harrison. We would like to thank the many of you who contributed time, talent, and food to help with his funeral: Verger Sherry Wallace; servers David Draper and Martha Rummel; altar guild members Kathleen Rinehart and Annie Strahan; Julie Ryder and the choir; Benno and Sharon for assisting; ushers Philip Anderson, Eric Olson, Alix Janke, and Kathy Walmsley; all of the people who brought food for the reception; kitchen crew Sabra Hanson, Kathleen Rinehart, Pat Spivey, Shirley Sugden, Nancy Baer, Maggie Ewing, and Jackie Lee who set up the reception, arranged flowers for the table, managed it all and cleaned up afterwards; and Shea McNutt and helpers for preparing the bulletins. There are undoubtedly others who pitched in. I apologize for not being able to thank you by name. It was an amazing convergence of family, friends, and strangers, musicians, artists, and church folk. I think Harrison would have been astonished to see what he brought together.

Yours in Christ,

Laura Keys

Children's News

Sign up to receive the e-newsletter for Epiphany Children's Ministries by e-mailing cbreed@epiphany.org

Baptismal Banners

Would you like to help make the wonderful banners that our baptismal candidates receive? We are looking for 3-4 individuals willing to cut out letters and pieces and assemble them. A workshop will be held with our current volunteers who are ready to pass the, um, banner. Contact Sharon@epiphany.org

Let's See, I Know There Was Something Else

OK. Vacation/staycation, family get-togethers, picnics, Wimbledon, Tour de France, Fourth of July, the pool, those political conventions. Is there anything else on my Summer list?

How about paychecks for Shea, Benno, Sharon, Julie and others, those pesky electric/gas/water bills, the mortgage payment, the Diocesan pledge, Epiphany's ongoing program costs? None of those expenses take a holiday. Our income tends to run into the Summer doldrums, but our expenses just keep chugging along. Please review your pledge status and keep those weekly/monthly/quarterly and other pledge contributions coming. Your staff, Vestry and number-cruncher types will be most appreciative.

Quarterly Statements

Quarterly Statements for households with recorded emails were sent on July 12. Hard copies for households without email are in the Gallery for pick up. You can always access your financial information through the online directory. The link is on our homepage at epiphany.org. Questions about your financial information? Contact our bookkeeper, Robert Pitman, at bookkeeper@epiphany.org.

Do you have a number for...

Looking for someone's address or phone number? There are several ways to access our parish database information.

1. Online: Access data using our online directory, which is updated every evening. Click on the Members Online Directory link on the home page. First-time users have to register. There you can also look up your financial information or send group emails to groups you're a member of (provided I've been given an updated list of members, of course!).
2. Smartphone: The Members Online Directory also has a Smartphone app for mobile phones. Look for the free ACS Church Life app at the app store.

3. Paper: At least twice a year a good ol' fashioned paper directory is printed. Copies of the June edition are on the black library table in the gallery.
4. Website: A link to a pdf version of the paper directory can be found on our website under News and Events on the Newsletter and Other Publications page. The document is password protected. Contact the parish office for the password.

Education for Ministry

Education for Ministry is a group designed to help you discover your own ministry as a lay person. EFM groups consist of 6-12 lay people that commit to meet weekly between September and May. The heart of EFM is the weekly discussion in which participants wrestle with relating their faith to their daily lives. There is also some discussion of academic material.

EFM is a four-year program, but participants commit to only one year at a time. There are different academic materials for each year:

1. Year one students study the Old Testament, including the different source materials from which the Old Testament was derived, and the historical and cultural context of each book.
2. Year Two students get into the New Testament. Lessons cover historical and cultural background of the texts as well as the texts themselves.
3. Year Three students study Church History.
4. Year Four students explore theology in the modern world. There will be readings on ethics, on interacting with other religions, and on forming one's own theology.

Theological Reflection is a crucial part of EFM. Each week, we try to put our experience in conversation with the Christian tradition, to make sense of what our experience means in light of our faith, and to understand what unique calling there might be for each of us.

EFM is an extension course of the School of Theology of the University of the South. The cost is $350 per year, and CEU credits are available. If you are interested, please contact Esther Harbert at eharbert@gmail.com.

Forward Day by Day

The Forward Day by Day quarterly booklet for May/June/July is out. The publication, owned by the Episcopal Church, is a pocket-size booklet of daily Bible readings and devotions. You'll find them in the Gallery tract rack for $1 a copy.

Weekday Worship & Bible Study

Tuesday Morning Eucharist is celebrated at 7 a.m. A group of men gathers for breakfast and discussion afterwards and typically are on their way to work by 8 a.m.

A Noonday healing service is offered on Wednesdays followed by Eucharist and then Bible Study at 1 p.m. The group is studying the Revelation of John.

The Wednesday Evening Bible Study is on hiatus until the fall.

Thursday Shared Silence (7 a.m.) is a drop-in time for anyone who wants to sit with others in prayer, meditation, or self-reflection. The time is unprogrammed; come as you are and join a relaxed, open atmosphere.

Altar Arrangements & Sanctuary Light

Altar Flowers

Each Sunday, with the exception of Lent, flowers are placed on the high altar area. There are occasions when the church takes on a more festive look such as Christmas and Easter. Flowers are offered "for the Glory of God and in thanksgiving or in memory of a person or event." Parishioners offer altar flowers as a visible sign of acknowledgement of God's presence in their lives. The color and selection of flowers is based on the appropriateness of the liturgical season. More than one person or family may sign up for the altar flowers during the same week.

Sanctuary Light

The Sanctuary Light is a visible sign of the presence of the Blessed Sacrament held in reserve in the Tabernacle. It is the tradition of our faith that parishioners make an offering to acknowledge the memory of a loved one in his or her life—especially appropriate during the week or day of an anniversary date of someone's death.

Click the RSVP button on the homepage to find the sign-up link. Cost: $70/flowers, $6/light. Make check payable to Church of the Epiphany, noting "Flowers" or "Light" in the memo field, or pay by Paypal to treasurer@epiphany.org.

Transitions

Please make the following changes and/or additions to your parish directory and welcome our new members. Directories are available from the office by request (parishadmin@epiphany.org) or you can download a pdf from the news page of our website.

If you would like to transfer your membership to Epiphany, you may pick up a Transfer Request form in the gallery or send your date of birth and any dates of baptism or confirmation, along with the name and address of your previous church home, to the parish office.

Outreach News

Hagar's House

Our next dates for Hagar's House are July 31 – August 4, and we need your help! This important ministry for homeless mothers and children offers a chance for hands-on assistance and connection with residents. Volunteers prepare a meal at home, serve it at the shelter, visit with guests, and clean up. This usually takes two hours, from 6:00 to 8:00 p.m. Meals are typically for 25-30 people, but do not need to be elaborate. We will make sure that there are two households to cover each dinner, so you can enjoy getting to know Epiphanyes better or serving with your friends. (Note: We are asked not to have more than five volunteers an evening.)

Important: You may sign up as Volunteer #1, who brings the entrée and a side (and/or another item such as bread, drinks, etc.), or Volunteer # 2, who brings the fill-in items such as a side/salad, bread, drinks, dessert. When you sign up, please put your specific menu items under “comments.” This is information the shelter requests, and it helps us avoid duplications. Also, please put “new” under comments if this is your first time to help with Hagar's House.

Other Help: If you would like to prepare food but not serve at the shelter or if you wish to sponsor a meal with a monetary donation, please contact the Hagar's House Coordinator, Anne Warner, 404.876.3245

Peachtree Pine Ministry

Join us to cook for the men of the Peachtree Pine Shelter. This month prep, cooking and serving will all take place on Wednesday starting at 1 p.m.

DEAM Needs

Ongoing Meetings

The Epiphany Book Group will next meet on the last Monday in August, so as not to conflict with Labor Day. The book for that meeting is The Boys in the Boat: Nine Americans and Their Epic Quest for Gold at the Berlin Olympics. It details the eight man team's effort in 8 man rowing, along with their coxswain. In addition to the book discussion we will select the next few books.

October will return us to our regular first Monday of the month, at 7:30 p.m. in Jones Hall. Newcomers are always welcome, and there is no commitment to attend every meeting. All books are in paperback, in order to hold down the cost. Contact: Dennis Edmiston 678.613.7401.

Meeting Night: Committees meet on 2nd Monday from 6—7:30 p.m. We gather in Jones Hall, pray together and then go our ways. Committee Chairs, please be sure to let your committees know each month if they are meeting.

Peer to Peer Support Group: Peer-to-Peer Support Group is for people who have personal concerns or issues that might include questions about mental health. It meets the 1st & 3rd Tuesdays of the month at 6:30 p.m., Room 001. Contact: Ron Hall at 404.299.1502.

ECW Meeting: During the summer, the Episcopal Church Women will continue to meet on the 2nd Tuesday of the month at 9:30 a.m. to make sandwiches for Emmaus House. The program and potluck lunch is on hiatus until the fall.

Young Adults Sunday Lunch: Please join the Epiphany Young(ish) Adult group for brunch on the last Sunday of each month. Gather in the courtyard following the second service, about 12:30 p.m., to carpool to our location.

Daughters of the King: The Daughters of the King (DOK) meet 4th Sundays at 10 a.m. in Jones Hall, Room A. We invite all ladies of the congregation to join us.

Veteran's Support Group: Veteran's Heart of GA invites service members, veterans, and family members to speak with and listen to each other, create understanding, and collectively address the effects of war that touch all of us. They meet on 2nd Sundays from 1:30-3:30 p.m. *RSVP at www.veteransheartgeorgia.org.
