No Easy Act to Follow

Y'all, Jesus makes me incredibly uncomfortable. And following Jesus, particularly in the world today, is exhausting, to be honest. To view the world through a Christian lens is to realize we have so much work to do.

I am leaving Wednesday morning for a three-day workshop in Washington DC called The Summit. From the website:

The Summit is a unique cross-sector gathering of leaders committed to world change through faith and justice. Thought leaders and movement makers from a variety of faith traditions and fields will meet to discuss, strategize, and create opportunities to act on some of the most pressing issues in our nation and world. Instead of a large conference, The Summit convenes an intimate gathering of 300 leaders committed to finding solutions through collaboration. The 2016 Summit will focus on the intersections and implications of race in all of our justice work. Together we will share knowledge and stories to discern how our nation's racialized historic and current contexts intersect with the issues that we all care about. Through this process, we will deepen our understanding of the implications of those intersections in order to strengthen our collective impact.

This is where my faith is today. This is where I am on my journey to follow Jesus. The rabble-rousing, limit-pushing, marginloving, justice-seeking Jesus. Don't get me wrong - this isn't the Jesus I have always needed or wanted. For years I sought out the Jesus who wept with his friends, who took children in his arms, who sought the lost sheep, who welcomed the prodigal son. Trust me, I still need that guy in my life - somedays much more than others. And I still believe he is right there with us, loving us ALL the time.

But I feel like I am in a different season with God. A season that demands a little rabble-rousing of my own. Pushing limits, loving margins, seeking justice. For a long time for me that has been specifically directed at racial reconciliation, but in light of that awful night in Orlando, I am finding a deep connection and compassion for my LGBT friends and companions, and an anger for our right to live and love freely.

Where are you? Have you thought about that lately? About where God is working in your heart to comfort the marginalized or raise hell that they have to live there? Who is God for you and where is the Spirit blowing you, whether you know from whence it comes or not?

And how might this affect us as we live in community at Epiphany?

Have you heard the old phrase about comforting the afflicted and afflicting the comfortable? How does that feel to you today?

Uncomfortably following Jesus,

Show

Looking for someone's address or phone number? There are several ways to access our parish database information.

 Online: Access data using our online directory, which is updated every evening. Click on the Members Online Directory link on the home page. First-time users have to register. There you can also look up your financial information or send group emails to groups you're a member of (provided I've been given an updated list of members, of course!).

An update and an invitation

By Br. Aelred Dean

During my last few remaining weeks as a transitional deacon, I'll be in Atlanta and also Epiphany, and will exercise that ministry until my ordination to the sacred order of priests on Saturday, June 25. Shortly after my ordination I'll be leaving to serve as priest-in-charge at St. Mary's in Middlesboro KY in the Diocese of Lexington. I want to thank Epiphany for their continued support during this entire process. Please attend the ordination at 2 p.m. then come to my home (525 McGill Park Ave NE, Atlanta, GA 30312) for a reception afterwards. RSVP for the reception at deanab0@sewanee.edu

Ushers Needed

The 8:45 & 11:15 a.m. usher teams are in need of volunteers to serve every 5 weeks. If you are interested in working as an usher—the first to greet newcomers and old-timers alike, please contact Margo Timberlake (mtimberl@bellsouth.net or 404.508.5606). Thanks!

Ushers Training

Usher Training will take place between services on Sunday, June 26, at 10 a.m. Anyone interested in becoming an usher or in getting refresher training is welcome. Ushers serve on teams of 3-4 people and serve once every 5 weeks. We greet parishioners, help them get seated, take up the offering and direct individuals to communion. It is a welcoming community and we would love to have more help each week.

You Are Amazing!!!

Barbara Ryder, UTO Chairman for ECW

But then, I knew that! However, you have outdone yourselves this year!

Together we raised $5,351.83 for the United Thank offering. That's right, $5,351.83 for many projects that further the mission of Jesus Christ in the United States and beyond. I think that is a record ingathering for Epiphany certainly since I have been involved in gently reminding you every year to be generous. Thank you so much for rising to the occasion and I will attempt to find out where the money went for many worthwhile endeavors.

Altar Arrangements & Sanctuary Light

Altar Flowers

Each Sunday, with the exception of Lent, flowers are placed on the high altar area. There are occasions when the church takes on a more festive look such as Christmas and Easter. Flowers are offered "for the Glory of God and in thanksgiving or in memory of a person or event." Parishioners offer altar flowers as a visible sign of acknowledgement of God's presence in their lives. The color and selection of flowers is based on the appropriateness of the liturgical season. More than one person or family may sign up for the altar flowers during the same week.

Sanctuary Light

The Sanctuary Light is a visible sign of the presence of the Blessed Sacrament held in reserve in the Tabernacle. It is the tradition of our faith that parishioners make an offering to acknowledge the memory of a loved one in his or her life—especially appropriate during the week or day of an anniversary date of someone's death.

Click the RSVP button on the homepage to find the sign-up link. Cost: $70/flowers, $6/light. Make check payable to Church of the Epiphany, noting "Flowers" or "Light" in the memo field, or pay by Paypal to treasurer@epiphany.org.

Outreach News

Hagar's House

Our next dates for Hagar's House are July 31 – August 4, and we need your help! This important ministry for homeless mothers and children offers a chance for hands-on assistance and connection with residents. Volunteers prepare a meal at home, serve it at the shelter, visit with guests, and clean up. This usually takes two hours, from 6:00 to 8:00 p.m. Meals are typically for 25-30 people, but do not need to be elaborate. We will make sure that there are two households to cover each dinner, so you can enjoy getting to know Epiphanites better or serving with your friends. (Note: We are asked not to have more than five volunteers an evening.)

Important: You may sign up as Volunteer #1, who brings the entrée and a side (and/or another item such as bread, drinks, etc.,) or Volunteer #2, who brings the fill-in items such as a side/salad, bread, drinks, dessert.

When you sign up, please put your specific menu items under "comments." This is information the shelter requests, and it helps us avoid duplications. Also, please put "new" under comments if this is your first time to help with Hagar's House.

Other Help: If you would like to prepare food but not serve at the shelter or if you wish to sponsor a meal with a monetary donation, please contact the Hagar's House Coordinator, Anne Warner, 404.876.3245

It's Our Turn!

Ongoing Meetings

The Epiphany Book Group will next meet on the last Monday in August, so as not to conflict with Labor Day. The book for that meeting is The Boys in the Boat: Nine Americans and Their Epic Quest for Gold at the Berlin Olympics. It details the eight man team's effort in 8 man rowing, along with their coxswain. In addition to the book discussion we will select the next few books.

October will return us to our regular first Monday of the month, at 7:30 p.m. in Jones Hall. Newcomers are always welcome, and there is no commitment to attend every meeting. All books are in paperback, in order to hold down the cost. Contact: Dennis Edmiston 678.613.7401.

Meeting Night: Committees meet on 2nd Monday from 6—7:30 p.m. We gather in Jones Hall, pray together and then go our ways. Committee Chairs, please be sure to let your committees know each month if they are meeting.

Peer to Peer Support Group: Peer-to-Peer Support Group is for people who have personal concerns or issues that might include questions about mental health. It meets the 1st & 3rd Tuesdays of the month at 6:30 p.m., Room 001. Contact: Ron Hall at 404.299.1502.

ECW Meeting: During the summer, the Episcopal Church Women will continue to meet on the 2nd Tuesday of the month at 9:30 a.m. to make sandwiches for Emmaus House. The program and potluck lunch is on hiatus until the fall.

Young Adults Sunday Lunch: Please join the Epiphany Young(ish) Adult group for brunch on the last Sunday of each month. Gather in the courtyard following the second service, about 12:30 p.m., to carpool to our location.

Daughters of the King: The Daughters of the King (DOK) meet 4th Sundays at 10 a.m. in Jones Hall, Room A. We invite all ladies of the congregation to join us.

Veteran's Support Group: Veteran's Heart of GA invites service members, veterans, and family members to speak with and listen to each other, create understanding, and collectively address the effects of war that touch all of us. They meet on 2nd Sundays from 1:30-3:30 p.m. *RSVP at www.veteransheartgeorgia.org.
