

The EPIPHANY STAR

a word to the wise • The Episcopal Church of the Epiphany, Atlanta Georgia

a bi-weekly newsletter | April 13, 2017

Dear Friends,

Below is an excerpt from a letter I wrote to my priestly colleagues recently about the value of their Parish Administrators and the conferences and networks available to them through the PANDA (Parish Administrator's Network Diocese of Atlanta) group. Our Parish Administrator, Shea McNutt, is their current president and asked me to write an endorsement letter to rectors for their membership campaign this year.

Pay attention! That is what Shea does for me. She is an imperative. She is an exclamation point. She is right to the point. She is about getting something done, getting everything done. Pay attention! It's just a linguistic trick to get you to pay attention the way Shea helps me pay attention.

Shea McNutt is the Parish Administrator at Church of the Epiphany. She has worked for the Church for 20 years. Despite this long service to the church she still loves her job!?! How about that? She still wants to come to work every day and pay attention.

Shea pays attention to details, to people, to calendars, to budgets, to tables and chairs, events, funerals, weddings, appointments, buildings, grounds (sometimes), letters, emails, phone calls, contracts, equipment, mail, upcoming requirements—parochial, diocesan and otherwise. She pays attention to my comings and goings and raises an eyebrow when one might exceed the other, and always helps me pay attention to what I want to do, what I need to do, and what simply needs doing.

She has been paying attention around here for the last 20 years. Amazing. We want to honor her 20 years this spring at our Parish Picnic. Yes, she has deigned to come to church (just the one service!) and celebrate her vocation with us. We also will gather up a gift/offering for Shea as a small token of our appreciation for all her hard work and commitment to Epiphany, God, and the Church.

Join us May 21 at the Picnic. Send her cards, take her to lunch, when you are around stop in and say hi and thanks. Write your check for her gift to Epiphany and in the memo gleefully state for "Shea."

I can't imagine making anything work around here without Shea's buoyant, honest, hardworking, diligent, careful, attentive presence. I am proud to have shared the last 11 years in this same space with her. It has been an honor.

Peace,

The Rev. Benno D. Pattison, rector

April Exhibit

photography from Israel and Palestine by Katie Archibald

"Through the Checkpoint"

is a multimedia project providing vision and voice to life lived amidst occupation in Palestine/Israel, created in partnership with the nonprofit Creative Visions. The project is serving in tandem with ongoing efforts to foster justice and peace for all living in the Palestinian-Israeli region by the continued call for equity, end of human rights abuses, and the pursuit of a coexistence without occupation.

My hope is to help our global community gain a fuller picture of life in Palestine/Israel and compel viewers to join movements to end a dehumanizing status quo and catalyze peace and equity for Palestinians, Bedouins, and Jewish Israelis alike.

To learn more you can experience life "Through the Checkpoint" on my blog: <http://www.lifeilluminated.com/through-the-checkpoint/>. Please make checks payable to Katie Archibald. 25% of all sales benefits Epiphany.

Fabric Drive

April 23 and 30: Cleaning out your closet? Donate unwanted fabrics to the Earth Guild's fabric recycling event, which runs April 23 - 30. The fabrics will be taken to re:loom, as they were last year. Re:loom is the non-profit organization in Decatur that re-uses previously owned fabrics, turning them into purses, wallets, rugs, dog leashes and other products. while helping adults who have struggled to secure and maintain jobs. Fabrics must be clean with a minimum of one yard, and can be any type of fabric. No small pieces. Re:loom currently is making some things for a client and especially needs fabrics or clothes that are gray, even if other colors are in the fabric. For more information, contact Brenda Lloyd at lloydbv@bellsouth.net.

The United Thank Offering

The United Thank Offering contributions support mission and ministry throughout The Episcopal Church. Pick up your UTO box or envelopes in the gallery. Ingathering is 4/23.

Looking for a way to plug into service?

The Peachtree Pine outreach ministry involves several overlapping teams: people who chop and prepare for the big cook, people who cook, people who serve food at the shelter, people who prepare the meal for the volunteers, and people who clean-up. The end result is a monthly meal for 240-470 homeless people, depending on the weather. Teams always welcome new members.

Currently we have a particular need for people to prepare a main dish for the volunteers' dinner. This involves preparing a main dish for approximately 30 people, with expenses reimbursed from the collection taken up at the volunteers' dinner ($5 per person). (If the main dish is secured, it is easier to supplement appetizer/ salad/veggie/bread/dessert from among participants). Interested in joining the rotation, and stepping up anywhere from 1-12 times per year? If so, contact Tracey Laird at 404.373.7466.

Hagar's House

Epiphany's turn to serve meals at Hagar's House is coming up, and we need your help! This important ministry for homeless mothers and children offers a chance for hands-on assistance and connection with residents.

- Sign up for just one half of an evening meal during the week of May 1 - 5
- Prepare the meal at home, then along with other Epiphanyites, serve it at the shelter, visit with guests, and clean up. This usually takes two hours, from 6:00 to 8:00 p.m. Meals are typically for 25-30 people, but do not need to be elaborate.
- Please consider joining this important effort; newcomers to the ministry are very welcome! We will make sure that there are two households to cover each dinner, so you can enjoy getting to know other Epiphanyites better or serving with your friends.

- Volunteers may sign up in the Crossing Hall or through SignUpGenius on the Epiphany web site (<http://www.signupgenius.com/go/hagars>).

For more information, contact Anne Warner, 404.876.3245 or anne\_warner@att.net.

DEAM Food Drive

January and June are our "turns" for stocking the pantry, but the bins are out year-round to accept your donations. For March, the most needed items are: chunky beef soup, canned black eyed peas, canned lima beans, canned fruit other than applesauce, and one lb pkgs of any kind of rice.

AmazonSmile program

When you shop at AmazonSmile, Amazon donates 0.5% of the purchase price to Church of Epiphany. Bookmark the link <http://smile.amazon.com/ch/58-0838713> and support us every time you shop.
