Looking Like Jesus

A young child approached me during the peace at a recent liturgy and asked, “are you God in disguise”? Happens all the time! Just joking. But, and here is the fun (if you can laugh at the preposterous foolishness of God), she has caught onto the wisdom of priesthood, which is a play on baptism, which in turn is a twist on incarnation, Exodus, Jacob wrestling in the Jabbok and a final play on God looking for Adam and Eve in the cool of the evening.

Priesthood is a sacrament, or more accurately ordination is, and as such we look for the formula of outward and visible something making inward and spiritual sense about life and God and us and others. So, a person inexpertly stands up to be the outward and visible for priesthood (Deaconal and Episcopal ordinations count too, especially the inexpert part) and then, boy, don’t we have a time figuring out what that inward and spiritual stuff is all about?

Too often, and here is where the foolishness comes in, the good and holy foolishness of God, too often we think the inward and grace-filled and spiritual part is the exclusive domain of the person who stands up, the ordinand. But the truth is the person standing up, the visible part, is just about a someone, an anyone, the next person in line, it is and should be (in a perfect world, in an only sacramental world) forever about no one in particular and everyone in particular. Priesthood is about you, and yes about me, but only about me if it is about you.

A priest is a sign that you are wed to God and may not know it, that you carry the holy one and have only begun to realize the change in your being, that you are marked, that you have offering to do, a gospel to proclaim, a life of sacrifice, that is holiness at hand, and it is the best life you might ever imagine, a holy life, of a holy order.

Think about that this Lent. Think about your priesthood and how you are going to celebrate it this Lent. Priesthood is about being God in disguise. I leaned down to this wise child, this impish, foolish child, and said, we are all God in disguise. Welcome to your priestly calling.

Peace,

The Rev. Benno D. Pattison, Rector

MISSION STATEMENT: The Episcopal Church of the Epiphany is an inclusive community called to seek and follow Jesus Christ. We welcome all people in the Eucharistic fellowship of Christ’s Body. We receive strength and encouragement at the common table to carry out Christ’s work of reconciliation in our broken world. Nourished by worship and witness, learning and teaching, fellowship and service, we strive to live out the Gospel’s radical values with gladness of heart.

This Sunday

Dust off your prayer books and bring them to worship!

For the season of Lent, we will be doing something new. Beginning on Sunday, March 5, you will need to open the Book of Common Prayer (blue book in the pew with the gold cross) or bring your own to worship. The bulletin will be reduced to its simplest format and only include page numbers for the service. We are doing this in an effort to remember that our liturgy connects to a common prayer book used throughout the Episcopal Church.

Join us for Hunger Walk/Run!

On March 5 Epiphany will once again be supporting efforts to fight against local hunger. The event is held at Turner Field's Green Lot and includes food trucks, games, educational activities, and live entertainment. The event opens at noon, so that teams may go from church and buy lunch/enjoy the entertainment there. The walk/run begins at 2 p.m., and everything is over by 4 p.m. For those at Epiphany who wish to carpool, we will leave Epiphany at 12:30 p.m. and meet at the ACFB Meet Your Team Area.

Epiphany will have one team (Epiphany Magi) jointly sponsored by our Youth and the Outreach Committee. We will walk/run to raise money for the Food Bank and Epiphany's feeding ministries (Peachtree Pine, Holy Comforter, Emmaus House, and Hagar's House). Our Epiphany Food Pantry receives a credit at the Food Bank for 80% of the funds raised (which last year was $2610!).

There is a $25 registration fee (donation) to walk at the event or $35 to run. Members of the Youth and/or Outreach Committee will be collecting registrations between services, or you can register on-line: (engage.acfb.org) or receive a registration form in the gallery between services. If you cannot personally participate, you may sponsor a church member who is registered or donate to the team. Use the same registration link above or make out a check to "ACFB Hunger Walk." Holy Week & Easter

Rite of Reconciliation

During Holy Week, our priests are available by appointment for those wishing to make formal confession according to the Rite of Reconciliation in The Book of Common Prayer. Formal confession is an ancient Christian practice that makes explicit the pardon and grace of God for the penitent. Many have found this practice helpful in their Lenten journey. Please contact either The Rev. Benno Pattison (rector@epiphany.org) or The Rev. Dr. Sharon Hiers (sharon@epiphany.org) by phone or email if you wish to schedule an appointment.

Palm Sunday, April 9

The narrative account of Jesus's last days is read at 8:45 and 11:15 a.m. Volunteers are needed to read the various parts, which range from single lines to extended dialogue. The signup link will be posted soon on epiphany.org.

Tenebrae, April 12

Take part in Wednesday's Tenebrae service at 7 p.m. Tenebrae is the Latin word for "darkness" or "shadows." This is a contemplative service recalling the Passion of Christ in music, verse and light. Look for a sign up to read a lesson at epiphany.org soon. CHILDCARE PROVIDED.

Maundy Thursday

Thursday, April 13, at 6:15 p.m.

Maundy Thursday, also known as Holy Thursday, commemorates the Last Supper when Jesus shared the Passover meal with his disciples on the night before he was crucified. Epiphany has a long-held tradition of celebrating this special day beginning with a simple and communal Agápe supper, followed by a procession into the Church to strip the altar and reserve the blessed bread and wine, body and blood of Jesus.

No recipes have come down to us from the time of Christ; however, knowing what raw materials were available to the Jews of Palestine in that period and what dishes were mentioned in the Bible, we have an idea of what Christians may have eaten at an Agápe (love) feast. Dried and fresh fruits (no citrus, as oranges and lemons were rare and very expensive), olives, almonds, different kinds of cheeses, lentils, cucumbers with yogurt, couscous, tabbouleh, hummus and bread could have been a part of these meals. For the bread, flatbread, pita, or matzoth (or all three) might have been eaten. Wine for the adults (and grape juice for the children at our supper) would be the custom.

As part of our liturgical expression of this event, we invite participants to bring to their 'assigned' table one of the components listed above while Joel Fowler prepares a delicate fish fillet for those who are interested. As we eat, we will do the liturgy of the Word, make Eucharist around our tables, and humble ourselves to our neighbors by the washing of each other's feet for those who wish to participate.

Sign-up sheets for tables are located outside the kitchen in Jones Hall. Your food offering is designated on the sign-up sheet. No charge for fish this year, but please indicate if you want a serving so we have a count. The nursery will be available for infants and toddlers, if parents wish to use it. Older children are seated with their families and are encouraged to attend.

Watch One Hour

Our traditional vigil on Maundy Thursday night and Good Friday morning is an opportunity for people to come to the church in response to Jesus's question in the Garden of Gethsemane, "Could you not keep awake one hour?" A time for prayer, meditation and scripture reading, the vigil hours mark the time between the Last Supper and Jesus's crucifixion. Vigil keepers are invited to pray near the altar of repose, in the baptistry, where the reserved sacrament is kept during this time. Please sign up at <http://www.epiphany.org/ministries/people.html> to watch with Christ one hour.

Good Friday

Good Friday Services are at noon & 7 p.m. on Friday, April 14. The Stations of the Cross—a symbolic meditative journey beginning with Christ’s condemnation and ending with his burial—will take place at 11:30 a.m. & 6:30 p.m. Since 1922, the Episcopal Church has contributed the Good Friday Offering to the Episcopal Church in Jerusalem and the Middle East. If you would like to contribute, make a check payable to Epiphany noting “Good Friday” in the memo field. CHILDCARE PROVIDED FOR THE EVENING SERVICE.

Holy Saturday Workday

Holy Saturday Workday, from 10 a.m. - 12 p.m. Saturday, April 15, includes helping Guilds prepare the Nave for Easter and making crafts for Easter. Sign up your child in the Crossing Hall for ways to help.

Easter Vigil

Join us for the Great Vigil of Easter at 6 a.m. on Sunday morning to begin our Easter celebration. There will be incense at this service. Remember to bring bells to ring during the service and plan to stay afterwards for champagne and strawberries.

Easter Breakfast

Easter Day, April 16, from 9:30 – 11 a.m.

Breakfast begins Easter morning at 9:30 a.m. Parishioners are invited to bring breakfast dishes to share. Parish Life will provide ham and biscuits. No charge/donations welcome. Sign up in the Crossing Hall.

Easter Egg Hunt

Children in Grades 3 and under are invited to join in the annual Epiphany Easter Egg Hunt on Easter morning! Please bring your own baskets. We will gather in Jones Hall following the 8:45 a.m. service for directions and to begin the hunt.

Plastic eggs and candy donations will be accepted throughout Lent until Palm Sunday, April 9. Donations may be placed in the bins in the gallery or given to Catherine Breed in the Church office. Volunteers are needed to fill eggs and to hide them. Please email Catherine at cbreed@epiphany.org if you would like to volunteer.

The Cathedral Book Store Needs Your Support

The Cathedral Book Store remains a hidden treasure and is being affected by the changes the book industry and brick-and-mortar stores are going through, influenced by trends such as the transition from print to digital and online shopping.

And, while we are part of The Cathedral of St. Philip, we are not subsidized by the Parish beyond our rent. We have wonderful volunteers from the Cathedral and other parishes working in the store and serving on the Board. Just like any store, we must pay rent, buy merchandise and have paid staff.

We must continue to find ways to strengthen our finances in order to keep our doors open and continue our ministry. Give your financial support to the Cathedral Book Store by becoming a 2017 Book Fellow.

What Will Book Fellows Accomplish?

Since 1949, the Cathedral Book Store has served the Cathedral of St. Philip, the Diocese of Atlanta and the community at large. Founded by the Episcopal Church Women, we have grown from being a small book store to a vibrant ministry that serves as a resource to explore faith and values. We strive to be a catalyst for creating an engaged and thoughtful community through educational programs, speakers, discussion groups, and fellowship and outreach programs. Our vision is to serve metro Atlanta in a way that we represent a "welcome sign" to all who enter Cathedral doors and to take our ministry to other churches and organizations through an outreach program.
