Coming and Going

Coming and going was always an event in my household. I don't think anyone left quietly, or entered unobserved (I might have once or twice in my college years). If it was a trip of any sort there were always last minute hysterics—lists to check, food prep, games for the journey shoved in a bag, the visual reconnaissance of baggage left to pack into the car. On the other hand, when someone arrived usually there was a meal in the works: a crowd at the door, the delightedness of consummation of the arrival of the long sought after, friend, guest, family member come home to roost.

When people go from this place our tradition has become that we offer a blessing and we've done many—for those who return from rest, and pilgrimage and mission, for those we may never see again who have moved across country, reached the end of their days. Sometimes it's a staff person and this time it's Catherine.

By now you've received the news that Catherine Breed is going to rejoin the staff at St. Martin's school in Dunwoody. She will be following her heart's desire entering the classroom once again. We will miss her very much. The upside is that Catherine now will rejoin the ranks of parishioner. That is a coming and a going redux or some such thing. She, Brennen and the kids will remain as part of our Epiphany community and for that I am very grateful, a going/returning/staying—staying kind of thing?

All of which is to say, as we gather the details of schedules and contemplate for a moment over our common life and what we need for this part of our journey, I will let you know where it all stands. We will have some sort of blessing for Catherine as she leaves this part of her life with us and a thanksgiving for the Breed clan remaining with us—we will rigorously ask the good questions of our Children's formation program to see what the need staff wise might be as we go down the road—we will prepare to welcome a new person, or a new role, or a new way of being in this next generation.

As you come and go this summer keep your Epiphany community in your prayers as we keep you—be ready for the predictable as much as the unexpected. We are always on the go in some way, in our heads or jobs, or in our families and, yes, at church too. Travel well and safely and go with the blessing of this place.

Peace,

The Rev. Benno D. Pattison, Rector

Peace,

The Rev. Benno D. Pattison, Rector

Staff Announcements and Notes

From Catherine Breed, Director of Children's Ministries

I am writing to announce some bittersweet news: I have decided to accept an offer to return to teaching this coming fall. I will once again be a Religion teacher at St. Martin's Episcopal School in Brookhaven, where I taught from 2006-2012. I left St. Martin's when Margaret Ann was a newborn and Freddie was still a toddler, but I imagined that I might someday return. This spring, the position at St. Martin's happened to come open. Since both of our kids will soon be in elementary school, the timing seems right to return to my long-term vocation. My family and I will continue to call Epiphany our home, and we will remain active participants in the life of the community.

It has been such a joy for me to be a part of this incredible staff and to serve as Director of Children's Ministries for the last two years. I am so grateful for the many children, families, and volunteers who have devoted so much time, energy and love to our programs and to our community life. I plan to continue helping with children's chapel (which is my absolute favorite time of each week), as well as with the Godly Play program, and other special events. Thank you for the privilege of serving at Epiphany.

From The Rev. Barbara Ryder

My heart is full of gratitude for the many blessings I have received from the extraordinary community of Epiphany during my recent illness. Your prayers comforted and strengthened me when I was too ill and too scared to pray myself. The support you gave my family: Craig, Linda and Steve, Julie and Terri upheld them as they cared for me and guided my care through the acute stage and subsequent rehab. The phone calls, gifts, visits, and many wonderful meals contributed to my healing. I am slowly improving in endurance, strength. As Sharon repeats in her blessing—life is short and you took the time to gladden my heart; you were swift to love; you made haste to be kind, and I will always be grateful.

From Shea McNutt, Parish Administrator

Thanks so much to everyone for congratulating me for my 20th Working Anniversary at Epiphany at the annual picnic on Sunday, May 21. Introvert and sufferer of social anxiety that I am, I did appreciate the attention and well wishes. A special thank you to our Haitian missionaries who brought back this beautiful nativity for me as my anniversary gift. It's lovely and I've decided to hang it in the office so that I'll see it every day.

Parish Weekend SAVE THE DATE!

Altar Arrangements & Sanctuary Light

Altar Flowers

Each Sunday, with the exception of Lent, flowers are placed on the high altar area. There are occasions when the church takes on a more festive look such as Christmas and Easter. Flowers are offered “for the Glory of God and in thanksgiving or in memory of a person or event.” Parishioners offer altar flowers as a visible sign of acknowledgement of God’s presence in their lives. The color and selection of flowers is based on the appropriateness of the liturgical season. More than one person or family may sign up for the altar flowers during the same week.

Sanctuary Light

The Sanctuary Light is a visible sign of the presence of the Blessed Sacrament held in reserve in the Tabernacle. It is the tradition of our faith that parishioners make an offering to acknowledge the memory of a loved one in his or her life—especially appropriate during the week or day of an anniversary date of someone’s death.

Click the RSVP button on the homepage to find the sign-up link. Cost: $70/flowers, $6/light. Make check payable to Church of the Epiphany, noting “Flowers” or “Light” in the memo field, or pay by Paypal to treasurer@epiphany.org.

Time to update the directory!

In January and June, a good ol' fashioned paper directory is printed, so it's time for an update. To make sure we have the most up-to-date info on you and your family, could you visit the online directory and make any changes or corrections by June 9?

If you have never visited it online, or if it has been awhile, here's the direct link:

<https://secure.accessacs.com/access/memberlogin.aspx?sn=100833>

First time visitors will need to register by clicking on the "Need a login?" link.

Once there, you can update your contact information and personal info. One field under personal info that is helpful to the staff is what your occupation is.

But the most helpful feature of all would be for you to provide us with a picture! If you don't have a photo on file yet, or want to update your photo, please send it to parishadmin@epiphany.org.

Another feature of the online database is that you can check your financial information at any time. Also, if you are part of group, through the activities feature you can send group email.

In addition to the paper version in the gallery (starting June 11 for the new edition) and the online directory, there's also has a Smartphone app for mobile phones. Look for the free ACS Church Life app at the app store.

Congratulations Graduates!

- ★ Alex Bender is graduation from Woodward Academy and will be attending Brandeis University.
- ★ Hannah Krawczyk is graduating from Academe of the Oaks and will be attending Auburn University.

Our family is settling in well. The Osmanis are very thankful for the lovely apartment we provided them. They are in the process of getting all their shots, taking driver's test and becoming familiar with their new life. Our first outing is planned for Stone Mountain in the next few weeks. The oldest boy, Edris, has started school and we are supplying him with uniforms and school supplies. I am looking for a used car for the family so they can transport themselves to work, doctors and grocery shopping. Thank you to the many people who have helped this ministry to be successful.
